

30th October 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

Hertfordshire's Armed Forces Covenant Christmas Card Competition

Hertfordshire's Armed Forces Covenant is running a Christmas Card competition.

2018 will be the 100th anniversary of the Royal Air Force, so we are linking up with RAF Henlow, who will help judge the competition as well as distribute the art to RAF personnel working away from home at Christmas.

RAF Henlow have said how much aircrew separated from their families at Christmas would appreciate receiving pictures from Hertfordshire children during the Christmas period.

To enter the competition:

- The picture should follow the theme of 'A Force for Good'.
- No larger than A3
- Any materials can be used. E.g. Pencil, pastels, paints, collage etc.
- Please write on the picture 'Wishing the RAF a very Merry Christmas and a happy 100th birthday from Brookland Junior School.'
- Please write your name and age, class and Brookland Junior School on the back of the picture.

The entries will be judged by staff at RAF Henlow.

Unfortunately, pictures cannot be returned. There will be a prize for the school of the winning entry and the winner will be notified as soon as possible. The prize will be awarded at an assembly with representatives from the Armed Forces, and Councillors from Hertfordshire County Council),

Copies of the winning entries will also be available on www.hertfordshireheroes.org.

Entries to Miss Boyce by Thursday 30th November 2017 please.

Yours sincerely
